

You're invited!

*Celebrating humanism
and the light of reason.*

December 23, 2009

Prairie UU Meeting House
2010 Whenona Drive Madison WI

Reception beginning at 5:30pm

Appetizer & Dessert Potluck at 6:00pm

(Bring a beverage and your favorite appetizer or dessert to share.)

Jane Esbensen

UU Humanist Minister
"Celebrating HumanLight!"

Star-Gazing with John Rummel

John is an amateur astronomer & photographer.

Weather permitting, we'll take a short walk to Marlborough Park to gaze at the night sky. If the weather is too cloudy, John has an indoor presentation that will be equally as dazzling!

Ken Lonquist

The prolific & award-winning songwriter who's been delighting audiences of all ages with moving & witty original songs.

Grateful parents hail him as the "Anti-Barney."

Arts & Crafts

Arts and crafts area for coloring, beading, origami, knitting, and more!

Storytelling

with Rose Smith

Retired Librarian

Folk dancing for all ages led by Doleta Chapru

Donations Requested

Bring your new or gently used warm weather socks, hats, gloves, and blankets for distribution to area homeless shelters.

Please remember those in need during the holiday season and throughout the year.
Information about other giving opportunities and organizations will be available.

RSVP to humanistunion@gmail.com or (608) 217-2507

Please indicate Yes/Maybe and include number of adults/children in your party as well as what you may bring for the potluck. You can also go to the website at

<http://humanlight.madisonwi.us/>

and click on the RSVP link.