

Dr. Eugenia Cheng

"Using Logic to Find Clarity for Life's Problems"

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26
5:30-6:30 P.M.

Discovery Building, 330 Orchard St., DeLuca Forum
The Lecture is FREE and OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
Reception & book signing to follow.

Mathematician, musician, author, & internet sensation Dr. Cheng shows us how logic can be used to illuminate debate flaws in conversations about politics, privilege, sexism, racism, & other issues.

For Math Dept. Faculty, Staff & Students

"Character vs. Gender in Math"

SEPT. 26 @ 3:00-4:00 P.M. 911 Van Vleck Hall

Friends
UNIVERSITY OF
WISCONSIN-MADISON LIBRARIES

The Annual Schewe Lecture is presented by the Friends of UW-Madison Libraries in partnership with the Department of Mathematics

Questions? Call 608-265-2505